Nonresident Membership: Commuters and residents of other campus housing are encouraged to become members of the Academic Villages. Non-resident members in good standing can usually have their membership renewed each year by contacting the director without filling out a new application, at the discretion of the director. Most students will qualify as nonresident members.

Nonresidents must earn five village credits a semester, three of which must be sponsored by BSAV or service to BSAV.

IV. Agreement (please read carefully before signing)

- I understand that acceptance of my membership is at the sole discretion of the Director of the Village(s) to which I am applying.
- If accepted as a nonresident, I must earn five village attendance/participation credits, three of which must be from events sponsored by my resident Village or service to it.
- I understand that credit can be earned through attending programs, service on a Village student council, or any other forms of participation for which the village director agrees to grant credit.
- I understand that my membership in the Academic Villages may be terminated if I do not fulfill the above conditions.
